

Professor Yarik Kryvoi, LLM (Harvard)

Annual Investor-State Dispute Settlement Update

About the instructor

Yarik Kryvoi is Director of the Investment Treaty Forum at the British Institute of International and Comparative Law and a co-founder of the Arbitration Lab.

Professor Kryvoi conducted trainings on international arbitration at the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Practising Law Institute, as well as for the UK and other governments, universities and law firms. He also participates in the meetings of the UNCITRAL Working Group III: Investor-State Dispute Settlement Reform and submitted proposals to the ICSID Rules and Regulations Amendment process.

He practiced with top law firms in Washington, D.C. and London has published on international investment law and dispute resolution and runs BIICL online course on this topic and. The recent edition of his monograph on ICSID was published by Kluwer in 2020.

Contact

- info@arbitrationlab.com
- <http://kryvoi.net>

What will a 2-hour session include?

- An overview of the recent cases related to fair and equitable treatment, expropriation and other key standards of protection
- The most important recent developments at the UNCITRAL Working Group III: Investor-State Dispute Settlement Reform
- An update on the ICSID Rules and Regulations Amendment process
- Key recent developments related to intra-EU disputes and ISDS
- A study guide with references to key materials and additional resources.

Prices

Please contact us for offline, online and hybrid training plans.